INDIVIDUAL LESSON ENROLLMENT

LESSONS

There are thirty-two (32) weeks in the academic year. The academic year is made up of two (2) terms of sixteen (16) weeks. Term dates are announced in Term 2 of the current academic year for the upcoming academic year. Every effort is made to schedule lessons at a mutually convenient time for Student and Faculty.

Lessons missed by the Student will not be rescheduled or refunded. Late lesson arrival does not entitle the Student to additional time beyond the scheduled time slot. Termination of lessons requires written notification of no less than six (6) weeks.

Lessons missed / cancelled by the Faculty member will be rescheduled. In the event that rescheduling is not possible by the Faculty member, a credit will only be issued to the Student's account. If a Faculty member is absent due to extended illness or extenuating circumstances, for a period of more than two (2) consecutive weekly lessons, the Student will be provided with a substitute Faculty member or lessons will be credited to the Student's account.

Public Holidays will not be made up. A credit request may be submitted in writing within two (2) weeks of the Public Holiday.

Hurricane days, Acts of Nature or other such instances beyond the control of the Bermuda School of Music, will not be rescheduled or credits issued.

FEES

Term Fees are due by the first lesson of each term. Payment may be received by any of the following: On line with the Bank of Butterfield or Bank of Bermuda; Credit Cards are accepted in person or over the phone; Cheques should be made payable to Bermuda School of Music and can be given to the office staff or left in the drop box; Cash must be accompanied by a payment slip and left in the drop box. At no time should cash be handled by Faculty.

All lessons must be guaranteed by Credit Card. Term fees not paid by the first lesson of each term will be charged to the credit card of record and/or subject to a finance charge of 2% per month. In addition, students will not be eligible to commence lessons until such time as the fees have been brought up to date, unless other arrangements have been made with the Accounts Manager and/or the General Manager. Over payments on the account will be applied to the following term's fees.

The Bermuda School of Music is a member of the Bermuda Credit Association. All agency, legal and/or credit charges incurred in the collection of the account will be billed to the account.

Termination of lessons requires written notification of no less than six (6) weeks. Fees for the notice period are payable, whether or not lessons are received.
